pure & simple

A good-quality, pure maple syrup will make all the difference to Belinda Jeffery's divine creations (p 118), or your next pancake breakfast. Our pick is Canada Pure Maple Syrup, a Grade 1 certified natural syrup from Quebec. $16.95, visit: theessentialingredient.com.au. ▲

bowled over

Maggie Beer has been busy stirring up the perfect flavour combinations for her new range of soups – our favourites are the portabello & porcini mushroom with creme fraiche, and the tomato, saffron and verjuice. $7.49, visit: maggiebeer.com.au. ▲

there's the rub

Spag bol stain on the couch? Red wine on the rug? Don't despair, turn to Shannon Lush's new book Stainless (with Trent Hayes, $19.99, ABC Books). Inside you'll find handy tips on removing stains, using everyday ingredients from bicarb soda to tea and brown bread. From ABC Shops and Centres or abcshop.com.au/delicious. ▶

speakeasy STYLE

Fancy a nightcap, New York-style? US distillery Tuthilltown Spirits is bringing back classic spirits from the pre-Prohibition era, so now you can (legally) enjoy Manhattan Rye, Baby Bourbon and New York Corn Whiskey (aka moonshine) that's been distilled in the Hudson Valley. From $90 at selected bottle shops. Stockists, tel: 0408 411 859. ▲
